

NATIONAL OFFICIAL & VOLUNTEERS SWIMMING

VENUE

Athlone Regional Sports Centre
Dublin Rd, Curragh, Athlone, Co. Westmeath, Ireland

SCHEDULE

The following preliminary schedule currently stands for swimming.

| DATE | ACTIVITY | SESSION 1 | SESSION 2 |
|--------------------|---------------------------|---------------|------------------|
| Sunday 1st July | Training & Classification | 08:00 – 12:00 | |
| Monday 2nd July | Training & Classification | 09:00 – 13:00 | Opening Ceremony |
| Tuesday 3rd July | Competition Day One | 07:30 – 12:00 | 13:30 – 17:30 |
| Wednesday 4th July | Competition Day Two | 07:30 – 12:00 | 13:30 – 17:30 |

Please note this is subject to change as entries remain open.

ACCOMMODATION

IWAS has accommodation for a maximum of 25 national officials and volunteers outside of the local area. All will be allocated to twin accommodation.

IWAS will cover two nights of accommodation on Monday 2nd July and Tuesday 3rd July, the day before competition begins and the night of the first day of competition. Additional nights are at the discretion and account of the national official/volunteer.

EXPENSES

IWAS will provide the following for national officials and volunteers;

- Full-board accommodation (Creggan Court Hotel – please note, accommodation must be booked by IWAS for expenses to be paid.)
- Travel reimbursement at 25 cents per kilometre
- IWAS Volunteer Games t-shirt and pin badge
- Games accreditation & participation certificate

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

National officials and volunteers are invited to attend the Opening Ceremony on Monday 2nd July at 16:00 (time TBC) where they will march into the Ceremony following the Parade of Nations.

The Opening Ceremony will take place at the indoor athletics facility at the following address; Athlone Institute of Technology, Dublin Rd, Bunnally, Athlone, Co. Westmeath, Ireland

A Sport Technical Meeting will be held on Monday 2nd July following the Opening Ceremony. National Officials are invited to join this meeting as this will provide final information for the competition days.